 gave you & I'll remember a certain person, whether you gave me concerning or not. Remember almost I followed your advise Ann Vall and Igham that Friday night when Ann Vall and Igham almost fell out of your car. But most of all remember that the Boz Scaggs album is mine & insanity is just a state of mind. Love ya always, Ann Knott

I haven't known you long but I have gotten
to know you pretty well
and you're very crazy
and cute and you just keep on smiling because every time you do someone
is going to smile back.
Have fun in the future

Reflected here . . .
are the same hills we climbed to dream our young dreams . . .
the same trees that sheltered us
from the world around us.

Within the halls of Frederick High
we have come to know friendship . . .
. . . together we have grown.

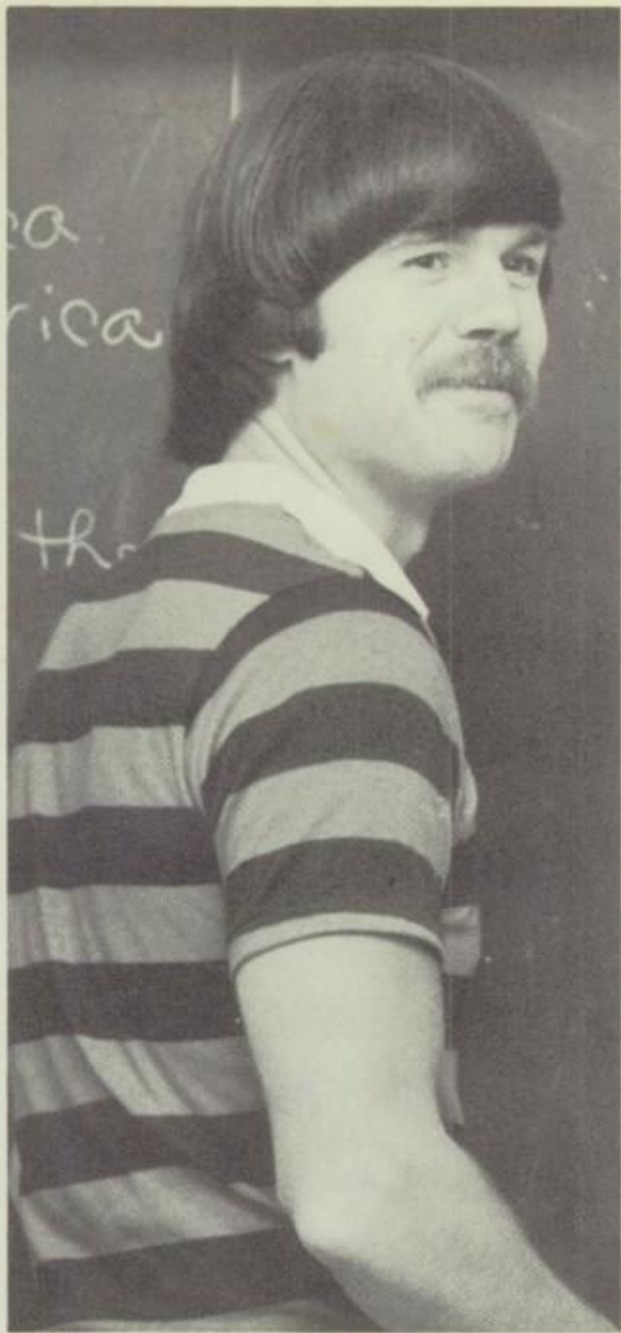

We would like to dedicate our yearbook to a certain teacher who has devoted a lot of time and energy to our class. He demonstrates a definite concern for his students, for he has always been ready and willing to speak and act on the students' behalf. His inventiveness brought us such gems as the "sing song punishment," and the assigned seats in the auditorium, which produced better behavior and more successful assemblies.

As evidence of his devotion, we found him present at ninety-seven percent of our carwashes. His humor and enthusiasm are always available.

We, the class of 1977, would like to dedicate this 1976-77 edition of the Frederick High "Last Word" to Mr. Michael D. Jacques.

KARRIE: A REAL NICE GIRL AND A GREAT FRIEND. DON'T DO NOTHING
I WOULDN'T DO AND STAY OUT OF TROUBLE. SEE YA IN THE FUTURE.
SOMEWHERE.

If we dare to catch a glimpse of the reflections of our past, we usually can see that a smile has managed to overcome the frowns. Often, the small details, once forgotten, appear again to remind us of happenings of the past - be they happy or sad. We know it's easy to recall the important events like the T.J. game, Homecoming, and Commencement. But there are also the seemingly insignificant reflections of the "stray tray" campaign in the cafeteria, the substitute we always cheered for when he taught, or the snowball fight we had that day they dismissed school at 12:45, that have great effects on our attitudes. So now we encourage you to turn the page, and gaze into the reflections we have prepared for you.

Reflect . . . upon what went on in our hearts, in our minds, (and in the senior lounge!).

Football

Our Cadets perform well under the leadership of new coaches Ricucci and Grim. Head coach Jerry Ricucci and assistant coach John Grim both bring college coaching experience to the FHS team. The Cadets' win over Lackey is first opening game victory for Cadets in 8 years. The fans also stand on their seats during the Cadets' come-from-behind victory over South Carroll. Bert Hill has his best day ever with 1 touchdown, 4 touchdown passes, and completion of 80% of passes. South Hagerstown is most competitive game of the year with a score of 3-0, won by South Hagerstown in the overtime. TJ game is a disappointing loss but Scott Ambush sets off some excitement when he runs a kick-off back. The season is capped by the selection of Darren Church, Keith Lee, and Kenny Parker for the All-CVAL team. Darren Church also makes the All Tri-State Squad.

The season brightened as it progressed for our J.V. team - the players made a remarkable comeback against a good team from South Hagerstown, when they won 30-13. The J.V. team was defeated by T.J., but gained in the realization that they could play on even terms with a good team. Chuckie Houck and Danny Baugher shared ball-carrying duties throughout the year. Strong defense limited opponents to only 5 touchdowns in their last 5 games of the season. J.V.'s "steal the ball away" and win 4 out of their last 5 games. Coach Huy looks forward to a strong varsity team in 2 years.

Basketball

This year's Varsity Basketball team posted a 15-9 record for Coach Bill Brooks. The team had key wins over arch rival Thomas Johnson, State Class "A" Runner-up North High, and Tri-State champions Martinsburg and South Carroll . . . Keith Lee led the scoring and rebounding as well as field goal percentages, while Curtis Fry had the best free throw percentage and Kevin Allen provided most assists . . . With only Co-Capt. Curtis Fry and John Lee leaving, the team looks forward to an explosive season next year.

J.V.: ROW 1: Eric Timpson, Bernard Rollins, Timmy Thompson, Chris Randolph, Paul Harris. ROW 2: Coach Bohlander, T. J. Houck, Scott Windon, Danny Baugher, David Blue, Jeff Dougherty.

The J.V. Basketball team won 15 games and lost only 5, showing marked improvement as the season progressed . . . Barry Bowens led in scoring while Jeff Dougherty, Jeff Kershner, and David Blue led the rebounding . . . Paul Harris and Chris Randolph provided valuable leadership in the two wins over T.J. and North High. The team also had two very close games with undefeated South High . . . According to Coach Hank Bohlander, both the coaches and the team had a very enjoyable season.

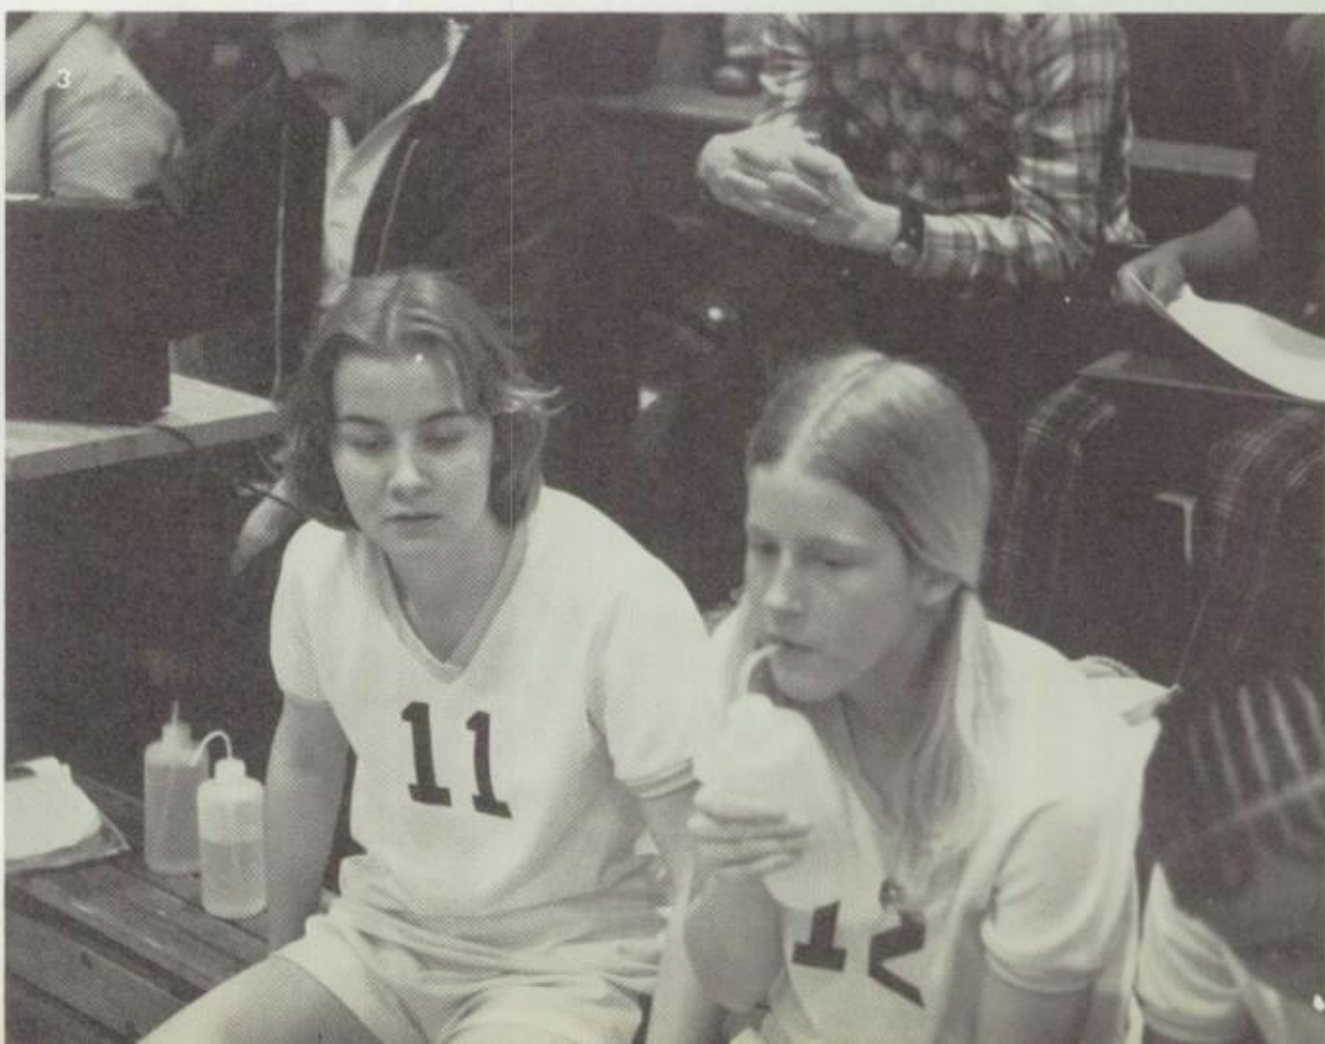

Girls Basketball

The 1976-77 girls' basketball team may well be remembered as the Frederick Memorial brigade . . . Despite the major injuries and illnesses that touched nearly every single member of the squad, the lady Cadettes put enough healthy people together to take the county Class B crown, become semi-finalists in the District 1 post season tournament, and end up with a 8-10 record . . . The team's leading scorers were Kim Proctor (160 pt.), Janet Gray (164 pt.), Brenda Harding (140 pt.), and Shirley Ambush (95 pt.) . . . Defensively, Kim Proctor, Julie Snider, Brenda Harding, and Shirley Ambush played very aggressively . . . Janet Gray led the team with rebounds . . . Since only Vicki O'Bryan, Shirley Ambush, and Debbie Burdette will be leaving, the girls should be strong next year.

ROW 1: Coach Hohnke, Brenda Harding, Julie Snider, Debbie Burdette, Janet Gray, Shirley Ambush, Vicki O'Bryan, Connie Coats.

The girls' seasonal record is 11-5 including an 8 game winning streak . . . Said Coach Bowie, "I was very fortunate to be working with some outstanding ball players who were willing to learn the game." . . . The team consists of 10 players - 8 freshmen and 2 sophomores . . . During the season, 2 freshmen - Kim McConnell and Mary Salmon - move up to Varsity . . . Depth allows team to overcome illness and injury . . . The team averages 21.3 points per game, only giving up an average of 19.1 points . . . During the 8 game winning streak, the team averaged 22.6 points per game while giving up an average of 14.1 points.

Hockey

Our field hockey season left something to be desired with a final 0-12 record. Hockey coach Mrs. Summers said, "The team looked pretty evenly matched on the field, but we just couldn't score . . ." . . . Regardless of their season though, there are some quite valuable players whom Mrs. Summers says will leave a dent in the team next year. Those people are: Becky Burdette, Miriam Conner, Cecily Clair, Laurel Anderson, Pam Hedstrom, Diane Hawker, and Debbie Masser. Trophies were awarded to Becky Burdette for most outstanding player, Debbie Masser for most improved player, and to Miriam Conner for best sportsmanship at this Spring's Sports Banquet.

J.V. Hockey team displays better teamwork than Varsity players . . . J.V. team has 5-4-3 score for the season, a notable accomplishment considering the number of freshmen on the team . . . Robin Page provides team's most powerful defense . . . J.V. players represent a very competitive team in the county proving themselves unbeatable by Catoc-tin and Middletown . . . Kim McConnell is responsible for most of team's points . . . Coach Summers expects a new and very strong Varsity team next year.

Wrestling

 2: Wayne Strube, Gary Johnson, Yank
 Strube, Sam Hobbs, Bill Schrodel,
 Gary Covell. ROW 3: Coach Burgee,
 Neil Coats, Brian Stone, Rick Loun,
 Mark Woozley, Brian Parker, Kenny Parker, Coach Martin.

The Wrestling team had a truly outstanding season, although their record was 5-7
 . . . They had 4 CVAL champions and 4 runners-up, boasting the 1st Tri-State champion in school history while the team placed 3rd in the tournament . . . The wrestlers won their 2nd District championship in 3 years, with 2 champions . . .
 There were two regional champions and the team placed 6th of 32 schools; their highest showing ever . . . Four wrestlers went to the State tournament and Yank Strube placed 4th, the best placement ever by a Frederick wrestler . . . Other impressive wrestlers were Gary Johnson (who was kept out of State by illness), Kenny Parker, Rick Loun, Mark Woozley, and Sam Hobbs . . . The squad also had their first win over T.J. . . . Coach Burgee predicts that next season will be even better.

The J.V. Wrestlers had a winning season with 7 wins; 5 losses. Paul Donnan, Jackson Maio, Eric Stone, Pete Stone, Brian Stone, and Brina O'Neil all had outstanding records. Brian Parker moved up from the J.V. squad to participate in the District I tournament after compiling a season record of 6 pins out 7 wins. Andy Donnan, Pete Stone, Greg Stephens, Melvin Hamburg, and Brian O'Neil will be missed by the team next year.

Boys' Cross Country

ROW 1: Mr. Koogle, Mr. Rothenhoefer, Sean Canfield, Bill Thomas, Mike Routzahn, Kevin Potts, Jon Ouellette. ROW 2: Eric Williams, Chris Conner, Shane Thomas, David Myers.

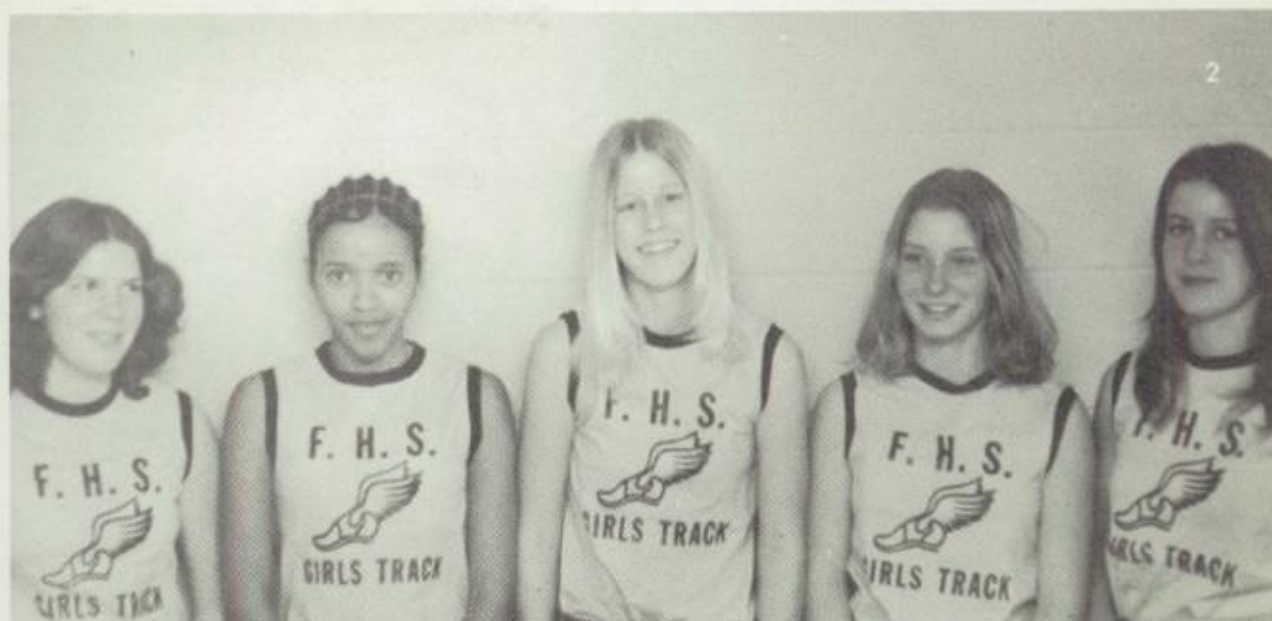

The Cross Country Track team has something in common this year - they were just as new at disciplined running as Mr. Koogle was at coaching. The capable team, however, meets their individual goals which are to: stay together, break into the top 5 of the better schools, possibly win a meet, and to come in at least 4th in the district meet. Coach Koogle said the team improved over the course of the year. They proved his point by outrunning TJ in their 7th meet with a score of 24-33. Frederick High's team was the first to do this so far. Coach Koogle said, "Had they run the times they ran against TJ, the team would have easily qualified for the State meet." Next year the Cross Country team expects a 15 season - and a very competitive one! The team anticipates winning next year's Tri-State.

ROW 1: Becky Burdette, Shirley Ambush, Janet Gray, Nicole Bragaw, Kim Gehrke.

ROW 1: Mr. Price, Kim Gehrke, Cecily Clair, Shirley Ambush.

Girls Cross Country

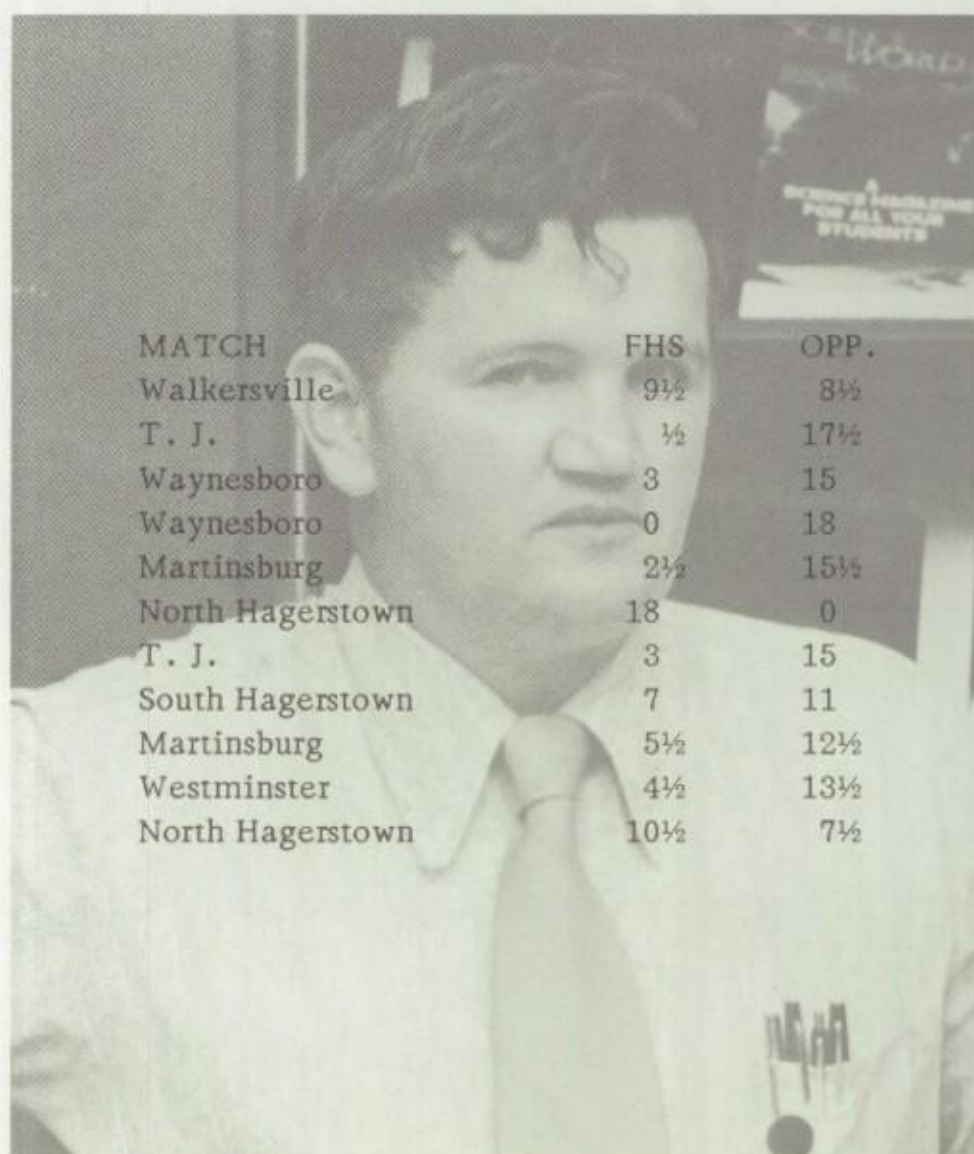

FHS has the honor of forming their first Girls' Cross Country Track Team . . . First Girls' Cross Country team runs only one meet - with Williamsport, Pa., but our runners win 26-32 . . . Kim Gehrke finishes first in their meet at Williamsport and sets a new course record of 11:55 for a 2-mile run . . . A mix-up in leaving Frederick High causes our girls to be late for the District meet . . . They arrive after the gun, but still manage to catch up and finish third, which qualifies the capable girls for State . . . Kim Gehrke and Janet Gray come in 14th and 15th out of 200 in the State meet; had Class AB been eliminated, Frederick High would have placed first with their scores in the State meet.

Golf

The golf team putted the ball in its place with a season of 3 wins and 8 losses. Seniors John Sherman, Lotus Gadd, and Eddie Cole maintained the top 3 positions, respectively. John Sherman and Lotus Gadd qualified for the State tournament with scores of 86 and 88. John Sherman shot 86-82 which placed him in the top 3rd of 106 state competitors on the University of Md. Course, College Park. Coach Dr. Meyers expects notable development of freshmen Greg Rhoads, Ross Crampton, Brian Smith, and Dana Carberry, which should result in a stronger team in the future.

Our fall gymnasts provided a perfect example of a TEAM. Their coach, Mrs. Reed, stated that nearly every team member won a ribbon at some time. Freshman Michelle Kalis won most of the firsts for her team, and was announced fifth all-around gymnast in the county. Jennifer McConnell, who would most likely have been first all-around, could not compete in the county meet due to a knee injury. The team received a trophy for placing third in the county meet. The coach said of her team: "Even though there were outstanding individuals, others were always there to back them up should they falter. Next year looks even better with all our experienced gymnasts returning."

Cheerleaders

VARSITY FOOTBALL: ROW 1: Kathy Chapman, Meda Groff, Lori Andochick, Carrie Tansey, Terry Smith, Paula Ambush, Holly Boucher, Gretchen Bragaw.

Due to a lack of uniforms, our cheerleaders appear to be just a little less than well dressed on the football field. (New uniforms that were ordered come in the day after the T.J. game!) . . . Under the leadership of Captains Gretchen Bragaw and Kathy Chapman, cheerleaders hold carwashes over the summer with only 2 girls showing up . . . Squad holds banquet for T.J. cheerleaders the day of T.J. game . . . Two successful pep rallies rock FHS gym before South Hagerstown and T.J. game.

J.V. Football season attracts an all-sophomore cheerleading squad . . . With Captain Renee Weedon and Co-Captain Wanda Brown, the J.V. squad progresses from inexperienced yellers to good cheerleaders by the end of the season . . . Faithful cheerleaders attend both J.V. and Varsity games.

J.V. FOOTBALL: ROW 1: Karen Hodgeson, Beth Murphy. ROW 2: Donna Allen, Lisa Carroll, Renee Weedon, Cindy Bunker, Wanda Brown.

VARSITY BASKETBALL: ROW 1: Karen Hodgeson, Paula Ambush, Lori Andochick, Lisa Carroll. ROW 2: Tracie Magruder, Beth Murphy, Meda Groff.

With Captains Paula Ambush and Lori Andochick, the cheerleaders see to it that the basketball season get off to a good start. Parties before games provide relaxation, extra spirit, and energy for both the team and the cheerleaders . . . Student body, basketball team, and cheerleaders alike bring the house down at Pep Rally before 1st T.J. game, and during the T.J. rematch, varsity basketball cheerleaders display their versatility by making their own new formations using a lot of gymnastic techniques.

Contagious enthusiasm aids wrestlers as squad doubles in size and provides a lot more encouragement for our wrestlers in '77. With the leadership of Captain Debbie Winpiger, buttons are made for home matches, and posters introduce our wrestlers to their opponents at the T.J. match. The cheerleaders attend all home matches, half of the away matches, and all tournaments. The cheerleading squad roots for both our Jr. Varsity and Varsity wrestlers this season.

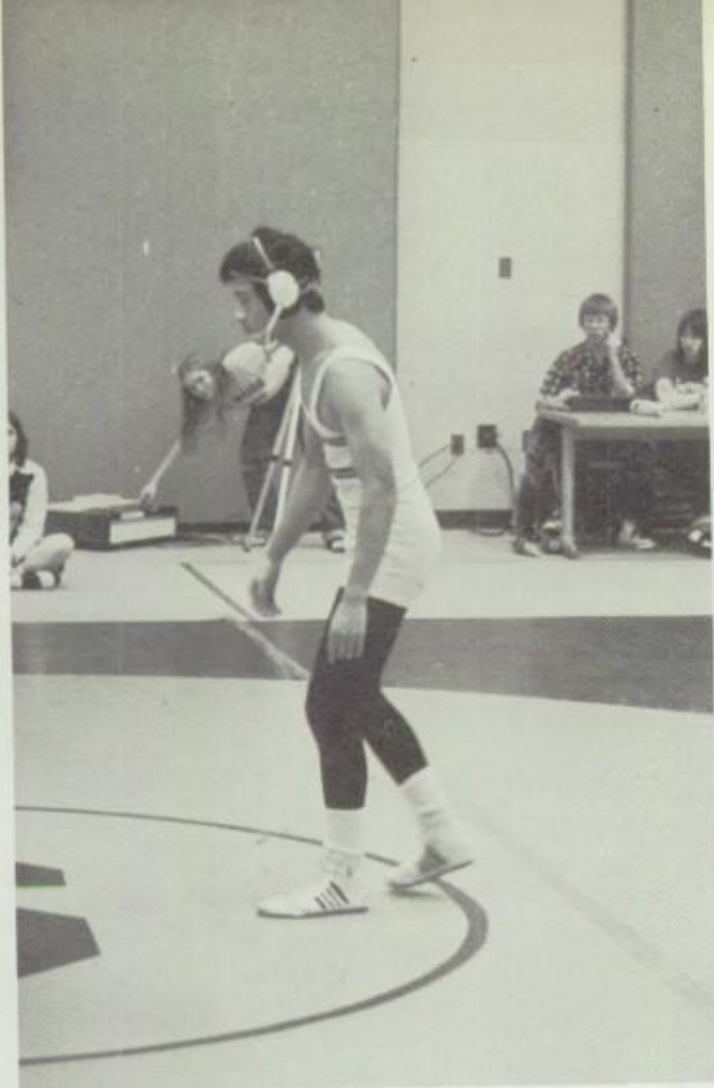

The Mat Maids complement the Wrestling Cheerleaders as far as services to the team goes. Selling concessions at home matches is the main fund raiser. Mat Maids assist wrestling cheerleaders in preparing posters and buttons.

Last Word

What can I say to a girl who turns around when ever I'm called & who I always answer for when you are called? I hope everything goes good (over)

"Seniors!!! All textbooks away!!" Junior staff slowly learns to adjust to the tyrant (Mr. Huy). Greg Stephens progresses from amateur to pro with his GAF camera . . . Yearbook sales most successful - more yearbooks ordered than ever before! . . . Mr. Huy puts up with seniors playing leapfrog into class, falling off chairs, taking pictures without film in the camera, drawings of Russian mountain goats, and strange "Baaahs" coming from various staff members . . . All deadlines met by staff with coolness and confidence as Susan Shirey and Marsha Ecker provide steady leadership.

Karrie, what can I say? First of all, I hope you liked the book. It's been great knowing you during our years in school. I can't believe we're really graduating. I hope you'll have all the luck in the world in the future. He's been interesting(?) sitting next to you 4th pd. Anyway, hope I'll be seeing you and have a nice time at the prom. Love, Marsha

If your mother is reading this, STOP HERE! Karrie you may find one! Now I had a pretty great year and the only reason I did so because of the sweet people I met. Your not one of them I really thought you were a brat! But let me get ahead of you. So am so and that's why we got along! You loud & bossy but all in all you are great! Girl, you have beautiful hair that I date you. (By the way this is a JOKE)

Any way good luck in the future!

I'll miss you!!

Karrie,
Of all the opinionated & onery people I've ever known, you certainly are one. I appreciate all the work you did for the Action Club this year, even though your love for Ron Pegge was sometimes misunderstood. You are awfully cute & a non-stop talker, one whom I shall miss very much. Please keep in touch. Stay out of trouble & I'll see you at the Carroll Creek Dam.

Karie,
